About the Giving Grove

The Giving Grove is a non-profit organization that helps people grow their own gardens and orchards in their own community; their goal and the reason it was created was to decrease food insecurity and make healthy food more accessible to people. They are currently located in 4 cities and plan to expand into many more.

ways to Help from Home

Unfortunately, this is a very hands-on volunteer experience, and as such we are unable to provide a volunteer-at-home option.
